

THE LOCAL NEWS.....

.....CITY AND COUNTY.....

From Saturday's Daily.

Judge H. T. Andrews returned from Phoenix this morning.

A Redwell left this morning for a business trip to Jerome.

P. J. Farley, county recorder of Yavapai county, returned from Phoenix today.

Daniel B. Prince, of the Verde valley, died in Flagstaff recently aged 80 years.

J. E. McCoy, left on today's train for a week's visit in Los Angeles and vicinity.

H. Emmert returned yesterday from a protracted visit in the southern part of the territory.

Miss H. J. Oliver returned this morning from Phoenix where she occupies a position as legislative clerk.

W. A. Rowe, came up on this morning's train from Phoenix to spend Sunday and Monday with his constituents.

H. J. Allen, was a passenger on this morning's train en route from Phoenix to his home in Jerome. He has spent the week in Phoenix.

John A. K. R. B. Burmeister, uncle of Mrs. R. B. Burmeister, left for his home at Lake, Kansas, after a brief visit in Arizona with relatives.

W. M. Childs, representative from Pinal county, returned on this morning's train from Prescott on this morning's train for Jerome.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. L. Ayer, on Mt. Vernon avenue.

Geo. W. Middleton the well known mining operator in the Verde valley, a business trip a month. He will be absent for about a month.

As Washington's birthday falls on Sunday, Monday will be observed as a legal holiday and the banks of Prescott will be closed all day.

Many handsome character costumes will be shown on the dolls to be exhibited in the opera house on Monday night. Seats at Briley's now being taken fast.

Already $5,000 has been subscribed by the citizens of Flagstaff for the proposed new opera house which will cost $10,000. It will be a credit to the town when the opera house is built.

F. M. Zuck, Grand Master of the Masonic grand lodge of Arizona, arrived on last night's train from his home at Holbrook, where he is supervising the local stables to Phoenix tonight.

Maxwell & Sines have the contract for building the addition to the Standard Hill Hardware company. The erection of this building will close the last gap on the west side of the place.

The Phoenix Republican announces the failure of Walter Hill & Company, the fruit and produce commission merchants. The firm had a branch office in Prescott but closed it several weeks since.

Jack Green, superintendent of the Arizona Copper mine, has been confined to the Sisters' hospital for the past five days, but is able to get up again and left today for Williams.

Sam F. Webb has filed an attachment against the Arizona Democrat of Phoenix. This is the paper which has the name of Col. William H. Webb, who was a balance due him of something over $100.

Col. J. F. Wilson, who has acquired the reputation of being the manipulator of the legislature, came up from Phoenix on this morning's train. The legislature has taken an adjournment until next Tuesday to permit the colonel to take a brief rest.

Judge McLane held a reception yesterday at which the guests were given a banquet at the expense of the city. A fallen woman, who had been in the hospital for some time, was taken to the city hall and her husband sentenced to 30 days in jail. The woman paid her fine.

The Journal-Miner stated yesterday that Harry Brown had come up from Phoenix to visit with his wife, which proved an error in so much as it is stated he stopped in Prescott. He was only on his way to Los Angeles to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, who resides in that city.

At his preliminary examination Ranger Webb was charged with murder on the grand jury on a charge of murder for killing Lon Bass at Douglas. His bond was fixed at $10,000. The case was introduced to show that Bass was unarmed, at the time of the killing.

A. F. Messenger, the well known sports photographer, arrived in Prescott this morning on a business trip. He has a patent photograph advertising device which he proposes to travel with and take a bird's eye view of Prescott this afternoon from the court house tower.

Matt Loring left on this morning's train for Williams. He is accompanied to the depot by a large delegation of friends who wished him God speed in his journey to the new position. Mr. Loring is a popular and bright young gentleman, and has bright prospects in store for him.

A bill is before the Utah legislature to pay a bounty of sixty cents a bushel for the destruction of grasshoppers, and the Salt Lake Herald says: "With grasshoppers at sixty cents a bushel, and wheat at twenty cents, the farmer who doesn't grow grasshopper eggs instead of wheat next spring will be a mighty poor business man."

T. J. Barkley, president and general manager of the Verde valley, returned from Flagstaff on this morning's train. He was accompanied by Messrs. Preston and Stetson and will retire from the business. Mr. Barkley is also interested in the Verde valley, and has been in the Verde valley for some time.

Two Greeks were sent into Prescott this morning from the Verde valley. They were charged with breaking into a trunk belonging to other parties and stealing the contents. The trunk was found in a rooming house and the Greeks were taken to jail.

An Arizona man has invented a new way of preventing such accidents as the recent Southern Pacific collision at Vall's station. An agent who finds he has given wrong orders, or has a button in his office and lights incandescent electric bulbs which are to be hung along the track, or on a third or third telegraph pole. By this means the operator could signal a train at any point.

Private Joseph Cunningham, of the Eighteenth Infantry, died at Whipple yesterday from an overdose of opium or laudanum. He had been reported to be a case of suicide but an official investigation resulted in the fact that he was taken by nature. He had been in the service for some time, enlisting at Whipple after the arrival of the first contingent of the Eighteenth Infantry. He was married to a daughter of Mrs. E. H. Whipple. He was a member of Prescott lodge of Odd Fellows. He will be buried tomorrow by the order and with military honors.

The county treasurer's office is being treated to a fine new linoleum and otherwise fixed up. This is a good move on the part of the supervisors, so far as it goes, as this office has been sadly neglected for a long time. The old carpet, which is being replaced by the new linoleum, has been a tattered layer of rag for two years, while the furniture of the office looked as if it had stood out in the rain and been trampled by a herd of wild horses.

Little Frank, the two and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, got a very painful fall this morning which caused his parents some fear that the bones of his nose had been fractured, but an examination by a physician relieved their fears, as he thought the nose had only been bruised and would soon be well again. The little fellow had been left alone in his room, while his mother called for the mail in the post office, and in that brief time he climbed up on his feet and fell out over the back of the chair striking on the floor.

F. P. Scott, brother of C. M. Scott, a well known S. F. P. railroad company's general offices, left for his home at Scottsburg, Indiana, today after a visit of several weeks in this section. As a souvenir of Arizona he took with him, by express, a little burro, which will be presented to his little son. The express on the burro to Chicago alone was $18.50 so it will be a pretty expensive present. By the time he gets it home, the little fellow will be a little worse for the wear.

But Mr. Scott does not care for a little expense when he considers the fun his little boy will have with the burro. The little fellow will be in luck if they don't call out the fire company the first time the above conveyance starts to sing.

A telegram was received from Los Angeles this morning announcing the death in that city of Mrs. A. S. Cloumen, a well known resident of Arizona. She had been in the city for some time and was well known to many of the people. Her death was a great loss to the community.

W. A. Drake went north in number "38" this morning.

E. E. Jones went to Tempe on Saturday night on a business trip.

Geo. P. Harrington came in Saturday evening from Crowned King.

Today has been observed as a holiday in the city and public offices.

Mrs. R. B. Marshall went to Poland this afternoon for a brief visit.

Mrs. B. M. Belcher returned today from a few days' visit in Phoenix.

William J. Sweeney, of Williams, died of pneumonia at his home in Summit street, West Prescott.

Daniel R. Prime, an old resident of Flagstaff, died last week, at the age of 63 years.

F. M. Murphy is having two very pretty little cottages built on North Summit street, West Prescott.

John Gray, superintendent of the Poland Extension Mining company, came up from the south today.

Three cars loaded with wood passed through Prescott this morning with a load of lumber for the Boston market.

Col. J. F. Wilson was a north bound passenger this morning with William H. Webb, who is supervising the local stables to Phoenix tonight.

Miss Black and Mrs. P. Ward will sing at tomorrow evening's social at Mr. and Mrs. Ayer's, 220 N. Main street.

M. G. Banks, a California, mill man and amalgamator is a recent arrival in this section. He comes with the view of developing the Verde valley.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will meet on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. T. Brown.

Jack Weber, came in Saturday evening from the Verde valley, where he has been employed for some time.

Mrs. H. B. Long will not observe her birthday at home, where she has been employed for some time.

Mr. Robert Lindell, and two daughters, of Naco, Arizona, arrived from the south this morning for a visit with his sister, Mrs. B. V. Weaver.

Rev. H. B. Long delivered a lecture last night on Geo. Washington. The church was filled, and the lecture is spoken of very highly by those in attendance.

Two Mexican women had a fight on Granite street last Saturday night. One of the women was injured and taken to the hospital. The case is now before the court.

Postmaster Campbell, of Jerome, is expected to visit with his wife, which proved an error in so much as it is stated he stopped in Prescott. He was only on his way to Los Angeles to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, who resides in that city.

At his preliminary examination Ranger Webb was charged with murder on the grand jury on a charge of murder for killing Lon Bass at Douglas. His bond was fixed at $10,000. The case was introduced to show that Bass was unarmed, at the time of the killing.

A. F. Messenger, the well known sports photographer, arrived in Prescott this morning on a business trip. He has a patent photograph advertising device which he proposes to travel with and take a bird's eye view of Prescott this afternoon from the court house tower.

Matt Loring left on this morning's train for Williams. He is accompanied to the depot by a large delegation of friends who wished him God speed in his journey to the new position. Mr. Loring is a popular and bright young gentleman, and has bright prospects in store for him.

A bill is before the Utah legislature to pay a bounty of sixty cents a bushel for the destruction of grasshoppers, and the Salt Lake Herald says: "With grasshoppers at sixty cents a bushel, and wheat at twenty cents, the farmer who doesn't grow grasshopper eggs instead of wheat next spring will be a mighty poor business man."

T. J. Barkley, president and general manager of the Verde valley, returned from Flagstaff on this morning's train. He was accompanied by Messrs. Preston and Stetson and will retire from the business. Mr. Barkley is also interested in the Verde valley, and has been in the Verde valley for some time.

Two Greeks were sent into Prescott this morning from the Verde valley. They were charged with breaking into a trunk belonging to other parties and stealing the contents. The trunk was found in a rooming house and the Greeks were taken to jail.

An Arizona man has invented a new way of preventing such accidents as the recent Southern Pacific collision at Vall's station. An agent who finds he has given wrong orders, or has a button in his office and lights incandescent electric bulbs which are to be hung along the track, or on a third or third telegraph pole. By this means the operator could signal a train at any point.

Private Joseph Cunningham, of the Eighteenth Infantry, died at Whipple yesterday from an overdose of opium or laudanum. He had been reported to be a case of suicide but an official investigation resulted in the fact that he was taken by nature. He had been in the service for some time, enlisting at Whipple after the arrival of the first contingent of the Eighteenth Infantry. He was married to a daughter of Mrs. E. H. Whipple. He was a member of Prescott lodge of Odd Fellows. He will be buried tomorrow by the order and with military honors.

The county treasurer's office is being treated to a fine new linoleum and otherwise fixed up. This is a good move on the part of the supervisors, so far as it goes, as this office has been sadly neglected for a long time. The old carpet, which is being replaced by the new linoleum, has been a tattered layer of rag for two years, while the furniture of the office looked as if it had stood out in the rain and been trampled by a herd of wild horses.

Little Frank, the two and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, got a very painful fall this morning which caused his parents some fear that the bones of his nose had been fractured, but an examination by a physician relieved their fears, as he thought the nose had only been bruised and would soon be well again. The little fellow had been left alone in his room, while his mother called for the mail in the post office, and in that brief time he climbed up on his feet and fell out over the back of the chair striking on the floor.

F. P. Scott, brother of C. M. Scott, a well known S. F. P. railroad company's general offices, left for his home at Scottsburg, Indiana, today after a visit of several weeks in this section. As a souvenir of Arizona he took with him, by express, a little burro, which will be presented to his little son. The express on the burro to Chicago alone was $18.50 so it will be a pretty expensive present. By the time he gets it home, the little fellow will be a little worse for the wear.

But Mr. Scott does not care for a little expense when he considers the fun his little boy will have with the burro. The little fellow will be in luck if they don't call out the fire company the first time the above conveyance starts to sing.

A telegram was received from Los Angeles this morning announcing the death in that city of Mrs. A. S. Cloumen, a well known resident of Arizona. She had been in the city for some time and was well known to many of the people. Her death was a great loss to the community.

W. A. Drake went north in number "38" this morning.

E. E. Jones went to Tempe on Saturday night on a business trip.

Geo. P. Harrington came in Saturday evening from Crowned King.

Today has been observed as a holiday in the city and public offices.

Mrs. R. B. Marshall went to Poland this afternoon for a brief visit.

Mrs. B. M. Belcher returned today from a few days' visit in Phoenix.

William J. Sweeney, of Williams, died of pneumonia at his home in Summit street, West Prescott.

Daniel R. Prime, an old resident of Flagstaff, died last week, at the age of 63 years.

F. M. Murphy is having two very pretty little cottages built on North Summit street, West Prescott.

John Gray, superintendent of the Poland Extension Mining company, came up from the south today.

Three cars loaded with wood passed through Prescott this morning with a load of lumber for the Boston market.

Col. J. F. Wilson was a north bound passenger this morning with William H. Webb, who is supervising the local stables to Phoenix tonight.

Miss Black and Mrs. P. Ward will sing at tomorrow evening's social at Mr. and Mrs. Ayer's, 220 N. Main street.

M. G. Banks, a California, mill man and amalgamator is a recent arrival in this section. He comes with the view of developing the Verde valley.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will meet on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. T. Brown.

Jack Weber, came in Saturday evening from the Verde valley, where he has been employed for some time.

Mrs. H. B. Long will not observe her birthday at home, where she has been employed for some time.

Mr. Robert Lindell, and two daughters, of Naco, Arizona, arrived from the south this morning for a visit with his sister, Mrs. B. V. Weaver.

Rev. H. B. Long delivered a lecture last night on Geo. Washington. The church was filled, and the lecture is spoken of very highly by those in attendance.

Two Mexican women had a fight on Granite street last Saturday night. One of the women was injured and taken to the hospital. The case is now before the court.

Postmaster Campbell, of Jerome, is expected to visit with his wife, which proved an error in so much as it is stated he stopped in Prescott. He was only on his way to Los Angeles to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, who resides in that city.

At his preliminary examination Ranger Webb was charged with murder on the grand jury on a charge of murder for killing Lon Bass at Douglas. His bond was fixed at $10,000. The case was introduced to show that Bass was unarmed, at the time of the killing.

A. F. Messenger, the well known sports photographer, arrived in Prescott this morning on a business trip. He has a patent photograph advertising device which he proposes to travel with and take a bird's eye view of Prescott this afternoon from the court house tower.

Matt Loring left on this morning's train for Williams. He is accompanied to the depot by a large delegation of friends who wished him God speed in his journey to the new position. Mr. Loring is a popular and bright young gentleman, and has bright prospects in store for him.

A bill is before the Utah legislature to pay a bounty of sixty cents a bushel for the destruction of grasshoppers, and the Salt Lake Herald says: "With grasshoppers at sixty cents a bushel, and wheat at twenty cents, the farmer who doesn't grow grasshopper eggs instead of wheat next spring will be a mighty poor business man."

T. J. Barkley, president and general manager of the Verde valley, returned from Flagstaff on this morning's train. He was accompanied by Messrs. Preston and Stetson and will retire from the business. Mr. Barkley is also interested in the Verde valley, and has been in the Verde valley for some time.

Two Greeks were sent into Prescott this morning from the Verde valley. They were charged with breaking into a trunk belonging to other parties and stealing the contents. The trunk was found in a rooming house and the Greeks were taken to jail.

An Arizona man has invented a new way of preventing such accidents as the recent Southern Pacific collision at Vall's station. An agent who finds he has given wrong orders, or has a button in his office and lights incandescent electric bulbs which are to be hung along the track, or on a third or third telegraph pole. By this means the operator could signal a train at any point.

Private Joseph Cunningham, of the Eighteenth Infantry, died at Whipple yesterday from an overdose of opium or laudanum. He had been reported to be a case of suicide but an official investigation resulted in the fact that he was taken by nature. He had been in the service for some time, enlisting at Whipple after the arrival of the first contingent of the Eighteenth Infantry. He was married to a daughter of Mrs. E. H. Whipple. He was a member of Prescott lodge of Odd Fellows. He will be buried tomorrow by the order and with military honors.

The county treasurer's office is being treated to a fine new linoleum and otherwise fixed up. This is a good move on the part of the supervisors, so far as it goes, as this office has been sadly neglected for a long time. The old carpet, which is being replaced by the new linoleum, has been a tattered layer of rag for two years, while the furniture of the office looked as if it had stood out in the rain and been trampled by a herd of wild horses.

Little Frank, the two and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, got a very painful fall this morning which caused his parents some fear that the bones of his nose had been fractured, but an examination by a physician relieved their fears, as he thought the nose had only been bruised and would soon be well again. The little fellow had been left alone in his room, while his mother called for the mail in the post office, and in that brief time he climbed up on his feet and fell out over the back of the chair striking on the floor.

F. P. Scott, brother of C. M. Scott, a well known S. F. P. railroad company's general offices, left for his home at Scottsburg, Indiana, today after a visit of several weeks in this section. As a souvenir of Arizona he took with him, by express, a little burro, which will be presented to his little son. The express on the burro to Chicago alone was $18.50 so it will be a pretty expensive present. By the time he gets it home, the little fellow will be a little worse for the wear.

But Mr. Scott does not care for a little expense when he considers the fun his little boy will have with the burro. The little fellow will be in luck if they don't call out the fire company the first time the above conveyance starts to sing.

A telegram was received from Los Angeles this morning announcing the death in that city of Mrs. A. S. Cloumen, a well known resident of Arizona. She had been in the city for some time and was well known to many of the people. Her death was a great loss to the community.

W. A. Drake went north in number "38" this morning.

E. E. Jones went to Tempe on Saturday night on a business trip.

Geo. P. Harrington came in Saturday evening from Crowned King.

Today has been observed as a holiday in the city and public offices.

Mrs. R. B. Marshall went to Poland this afternoon for a brief visit.

Mrs. B. M. Belcher returned today from a few days' visit in Phoenix.

William J. Sweeney, of Williams, died of pneumonia at his home in Summit street, West Prescott.

Daniel R. Prime, an old resident of Flagstaff, died last week, at the age of 63 years.

F. M. Murphy is having two very pretty little cottages built on North Summit street, West Prescott.

John Gray, superintendent of the Poland Extension Mining company, came up from the south today.

Three cars loaded with wood passed through Prescott this morning with a load of lumber for the Boston market.

Col. J. F. Wilson was a north bound passenger this morning with William H. Webb, who is supervising the local stables to Phoenix tonight.

Miss Black and Mrs. P. Ward will sing at tomorrow evening's social at Mr. and Mrs. Ayer's, 220 N. Main street.

M. G. Banks, a California, mill man and amalgamator is a recent arrival in this section. He comes with the view of developing the Verde valley.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will meet on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. T. Brown.

Jack Weber, came in Saturday evening from the Verde valley, where he has been employed for some time.

Mrs. H. B. Long will not observe her birthday at home, where she has been employed for some time.

Mr. Robert Lindell, and two daughters, of Naco, Arizona, arrived from the south this morning for a visit with his sister, Mrs. B. V. Weaver.

Rev. H. B. Long delivered a lecture last night on Geo. Washington. The church was filled, and the lecture is spoken of very highly by those in attendance.

Two Mexican women had a fight on Granite street last Saturday night. One of the women was injured and taken to the hospital. The case is now before the court.

Postmaster Campbell, of Jerome, is expected to visit with his wife, which proved an error in so much as it is stated he stopped in Prescott. He was only on his way to Los Angeles to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, who resides in that city.

At his preliminary examination Ranger Webb was charged with murder on the grand jury on a charge of murder for killing Lon Bass at Douglas. His bond was fixed at $10,000. The case was introduced to show that Bass was unarmed, at the time of the killing.

A. F. Messenger, the well known sports photographer, arrived in Prescott this morning on a business trip. He has a patent photograph advertising device which he proposes to travel with and take a bird's eye view of Prescott this afternoon from the court house tower.

Matt Loring left on this morning's train for Williams. He is accompanied to the depot by a large delegation of friends who wished him God speed in his journey to the new position. Mr. Loring is a popular and bright young gentleman, and has bright prospects in store for him.

A bill is before the Utah legislature to pay a bounty of sixty cents a bushel for the destruction of grasshoppers, and the Salt Lake Herald says: "With grasshoppers at sixty cents a bushel, and wheat at twenty cents, the farmer who doesn't grow grasshopper eggs instead of wheat next spring will be a mighty poor business man."

T. J. Barkley, president and general manager of the Verde valley, returned from Flagstaff on this morning's train. He was accompanied by Messrs. Preston and Stetson and will retire from the business. Mr. Barkley is also interested in the Verde valley, and has been in the Verde valley for some time.

Two Greeks were sent into Prescott this morning from the Verde valley. They were charged with breaking into a trunk belonging to other parties and stealing the contents. The trunk was found in a rooming house and the Greeks were taken to jail.

An Arizona man has invented a new way of preventing such accidents as the recent Southern Pacific collision at Vall's station. An agent who finds he has given wrong orders, or has a button in his office and lights incandescent electric bulbs which are to be hung along the track, or on a third or third telegraph pole. By this means the operator could signal a train at any point.

Private Joseph Cunningham, of the Eighteenth Infantry, died at Whipple yesterday from an overdose of opium or laudanum. He had been reported to be a case of suicide but an official investigation resulted in the fact that he was taken by nature. He had been in the service for some time, enlisting at Whipple after the arrival of the first contingent of the Eighteenth Infantry. He was married to a daughter of Mrs. E. H. Whipple. He was a member of Prescott lodge of Odd Fellows. He will be buried tomorrow by the order and with military honors.

The county treasurer's office is being treated to a fine new linoleum and otherwise fixed up. This is a good move on the part of the supervisors, so far as it goes, as this office has been sadly neglected for a long time. The old carpet, which is being replaced by the new linoleum, has been a tattered layer of rag for two years, while the furniture of the office looked as if it had stood out in the rain and been trampled by a herd of wild horses.

Little Frank, the two and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, got a very painful fall this morning which caused his parents some fear that the bones of his nose had been fractured, but an examination by a physician relieved their fears, as he thought the nose had only been bruised and would soon be well again. The little fellow had been left alone in his room, while his mother called for the mail in the post office, and in that brief time he climbed up on his feet and fell out over the back of the chair striking on the floor.

F. P. Scott, brother of C. M. Scott, a well known S. F. P. railroad company's general offices, left for his home at Scottsburg, Indiana, today after a visit of several weeks in this section. As a souvenir of Arizona he took with him, by express, a little burro, which will be presented to his little son. The express on the burro to Chicago alone was $18.50 so it will be a pretty expensive present. By the time he gets it home, the little fellow will be a little worse for the wear.

But Mr. Scott does not care for a little expense when he considers the fun his little boy will have with the burro. The little fellow will be in luck if they don't call out the fire company the first time the above conveyance starts to sing.

A telegram was received from Los Angeles this morning announcing the death in that city of Mrs. A. S. Cloumen, a well known resident of Arizona. She had been in the city for some time and was well known to many of the people. Her death was a great loss to the community.

W. A. Drake went north in number "38" this morning.

E. E. Jones went to Tempe on Saturday night on a business trip.

Geo. P. Harrington came in Saturday evening from Crowned King.

Today has been observed as a holiday in the city and public offices.

Mrs. R. B. Marshall went to Poland this afternoon for a brief visit.

Mrs. B. M. Belcher returned today from a few days' visit in Phoenix.

William J. Sweeney, of Williams, died of pneumonia at his home in Summit street, West Prescott.

Daniel R. Prime, an old resident of Flagstaff, died last week, at the age of 63 years.

F. M. Murphy is having two very pretty little cottages built on North Summit street, West Prescott.

John Gray, superintendent of the Poland Extension Mining company, came up from the south today.

Three cars loaded with wood passed through Prescott this morning with a load of lumber for the Boston market.

Col. J. F. Wilson was a north bound passenger this morning with William H. Webb, who is supervising the local stables to Phoenix tonight.

Miss Black and Mrs. P. Ward will sing at tomorrow evening's social at Mr. and Mrs. Ayer's, 220 N. Main street.

M. G. Banks, a California, mill man and amalgamator is a recent arrival in this section. He comes with the view of developing the Verde valley.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will meet on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. T. Brown.

Jack Weber, came in Saturday evening from the Verde valley, where he has been employed for some time.

Mrs. H. B. Long will not observe her birthday at home, where she has been employed for some time.

Mr. Robert Lindell, and two daughters, of Naco, Arizona, arrived from the south this morning for a visit with his sister, Mrs. B. V. Weaver